RECREATION FUND DRIVE OPENS TODAY

The Gettysburg Recreation Association today began a drive which it hopes will net $7,500 within the next few weeks.

That amount, the association's board of directors estimates is needed this year to put across a plan for year-around recreation and leisure time activities for the entire community. With equipment to be purchased for such things as the recreation center in the Hotel Gettysburg annex and for probably three new playgrounds in various sections of the town the amount needed this year can hardly be cut below the $7,500 figure, members said.

Final touches on the campaign to raise funds and secure memberships were completed Friday afternoon at a meeting of the board in the Hotel Gettysburg.

Party Tonight

There reports were made on the party being held by the Halloween committee for the Recreation Association to give its drive a send-off. The party will take place in the hotel annex starting at 8 o'clock with a masquerade march, during which prizes will be given for various types of costumes worn by youngsters of pre-high school age. A "dance of the witches" will be held, with prizes to be given then. And then, starting at 9 o'clock will be a dance at which prizes will be awarded to the best dancers. More than $100 in 20 prizes will be awarded during the evening.

Solicitors are to visit businesses, industries and professional men for contributions and then, next week, a concerted house to house campaign for memberships in the association will begin.

Students To Help

About 30 high school students will conduct the membership campaign, Mrs. Hefrietta Blocher, membership chairman, reported Friday evening. She and her committee plan to meet with the student council at the high school next week to complete arrangements for setting up teams of high school youngsters who will solicit the memberships.

Scheduled to solicit the retail businesses of the community are John Brehm, James Sheng, S. F. "Pappy" Swope and Eugene Williams. William G. Weaver, chairman of that committee, announced.

A special gifts committee to call on professional men and others was announced by Kenneth Hull, special gifts chairman. Included on that group are Sydney Poppay, Mary Bishop and Verna Kitzmiller.

Dedication Day November 19 Proclamation

Whereas the Gettysburg Address of President Lincoln is the outstanding classic of the ages; and

Whereas it will inspire men with faith in our great democracy forever; and

Whereas in that address Mr. Lincoln solemnly charged men to dedicate themselves to the principles of democracy in order that government "of the people, by the people and for the people shall not perish from the earth"; and

Whereas of all the communities in the United States, Gettysburg should lead in honoring this great President, Abraham Lincoln, whose immortal Gettysburg Address was given here in our Gettysburg National Cemetery;

Therefore, I respectfully request all our citizens to fittingly observe this anniversary, and to display the national colors, the American flag, from every home, from every public building and from every place of business, and that proper observance be given on this anniversary, November 19, 1947.

SHORTAGE OF ANTI-FREEZE REPORTED HERE

The plight of the starving thousands in Europe is having an effect on Americans beyond the question of food supplies. In the words of one automobile dealer in Gettysburg, "the hunger in Europe may be the cause of many an automobile radiator freezing here this winter."

The supply of alcohol base anti-freeze is about 50 per cent of the amount available a year ago, dealers said today, and the permanent type, glycerine base anti-freeze is almost non-existent.

Shortage of Grain

Cut-backs in the amount of grain allowed distillers is said to be in large measure responsible for the shortage of alcohol for car radiators. The cut-backs are designed to save grain for shipment to Europe. Radiator alcohol is a combination of grain and wood alcohol distillate.

The first big rush in Gettysburg for automobile anti-freeze came the latter part of last week, when the mercury took a sudden drop and car owners sought to buy anti-freeze to protect their radiators against an expected freeze.

Wednesday's government weather bureau forecast of below freezing temperatures started another mild rush on service stations, garages and supply stores.

Prices of the alcohol type of anti-freeze run the gamut from $1 a gallon to $1.75 a gallon. At the present time no one has had to go without, dealers say, but in some instances, supplies are short. Others say they have good supplies, due to forethought and "luck" in getting theirs in early.

4 Grades on Market

The alcohol type of anti-freeze on the market is in four grades. Each grade is known by a letter, N, S, T, and G. The "N" type is purported to be the best. Many are also known by trade names.

The permanent, or glycerine type of anti-freeze, or "hard-to-get" kind, is nationally advertised at $2.65 a gallon. The price is established by the fair price agreement.

Here And There News Collected At Random

For a number of years, especially during the war, every effort was made to persuade Uncle Sam to name one of its carriers GETTYSBURG. Carriers are named after historic towns or cities. We felt that no other community had a greater claim to this honor than Gettysburg because of the significant battle that was fought here in 1863.

However, the committees on selection, selected almost every other prominent name . . . except GETTYSBURG. It even named one COWPENS. Historians had to dig into the archives to learn that a skirmish of some sort was fought at Cowpens, South Carolina. GETTYSBURG never received the honor.

The Sun Oil Company christened one of its tankers GETTYSBURG and its war log, and a creditable one, too, was recently printed in The Gettysburg Times.

CITE CHAPEL WINDOWS

The December issue of Holiday, in a list of the country's churches having outstanding stained-glass windows, carries the name of the chapel of the Lutheran Theological seminary here. The magazine's more than 800,000 buyers are told that its windows are among those executed by the nation's leading craftsmen. They are mentioned in connection with a 1,500-word article on the ancient art of constructing stained-glass windows.

FLOYD KING TO HEAD COUNTY SPORTSMEN

Floyd King, Orttanna, was elected to the presidency of the Adams County Fish and Game Association at a meeting of the group held Friday night at the Martin Shoe store, Baltimore street.

Other elections included vice presidents, Elmer Dillman, Gettysburg, and Russell Singley, Fairfield; secretary, John Biesecker, Cash-town; treasurer, George Raffensperger; board of directors, George R. Martin, Gettysburg; H. D. Crouse, Gettysburg R. D.; Donald Hammers, Gettysburg; Bruce Gallagher, Cash-town, and Cletus Smith, Gettysburg.

The December meeting will be held December 16 at the court house.

Fail To Save Doe

No decision was reached on the question of whether to hold meetings of the organization at Cashtown, or other communities in that section, rather than at Gettysburg. That decision will be reached at the December session. One suggestion advanced Friday night was that the group meet alternately in Cashtown, Fairfield, Orttanna and Gettysburg.

Reports presented by Elmer Dillman, representative of the local association to the Adams County Federation of Sportsmen's clubs, disclosed that the attempt of the sportsmen's groups to secure enough petitions to close the deer season has fallen short of the goal. With 2,200 signatures of sportsmen secured on the closed season petitions, the number was still 1,200 short of the 3,400 necessary. As a result hunters will be permitted to kill doe in the county during a one-day special season this fall, Dillman said.

The local association voted to set aside $1,500 as a building fund for future use after a report of the treasurer showed assets of $1,624.87. Plans to purchase a number of sets of The Birds of Pennsylvania series put out by State Game Commission were announced by President George R. Martin. He plans to have them available here for those who may wish to buy the sets at cost.

JURY CLEARS COUNTY MAN

It took a coroner's jury only five minutes Thursday night to decide that Edward E. Benedick, 67, of 254 West Maple street, York, killed Oct. 25 by an auto driven by Harvey Wire, East Berlin, "came to his death due to an unavoidable accident."

Four eye witnesses testified that Benedick was hit as he was crossing in the middle of the 100-block East Market street, York.

They were Mr. and Mrs. Moritz Yohe, 606 Dallas street; Jerry W. Bender, 322 South Harrison street, and L. Allen Wolfgang, 945 East Philadelphia street, all of York.

Patrolman James Koser of the York city police, testified that Wire said he had been driving at least 30 miles per hour and had admitted to him that he was going "too fast for conditions."

Police Lt. W. D. Myers said the skid marks of the front wheels of Wire's car measured 71 to 72 feet. A test was conducted the same afternoon with Wire driving the car. Myers testified, with Lafayette street being used because it has a similar grade and pavement as East Market street.

By measuring the skid marks at the test and using a "tried and true" formula, it was determined that Wire had been driving at 40.9 miles per hour at the time of the accident, Myers declared.

LEGION TO MEET

A regular meeting of the Albert J. Lentz Post No. 202, American Legion, will be held at the Legion home, Baltimore street, Monday evening, November 17, at 8 p. m. Further discussion on the report of the committee on incorporating the post will be followed by a vote on this question.

ORGANIZE NEW SPORTSMEN'S GROUP HERE

Formation of a new sportsmen's club, made up of 25 younger men of the community, was effected Friday night at a meeting held in the home of Ray M. Culp, Carlisle street. Officers for the new group, to be known as the Gettysburg Sportsmen's Association, were elected and a constitution and by-laws were drawn up.

The officers include: president, Ray M. Culp; vice president, Clarence H. Cluck; secretary, J. G. Sneeringer; treasurer, William A. Bigham. The new officers will serve until January, 1949.

According to the constitution read Friday night and scheduled for adoption in December the annual meeting of the association hereafter will be held in December, with officers to be nominated at the November meeting, elected at the December session and to take office in January.

Plan Monthly Meetings

The third Wednesday of each month was set as the date for meetings. At present the group plans to meet at the homes of various members until a meeting site committee comprising Donald E. Staub, chairman; C. Arthur Brame, Jr. and James E. Leech can locate a permanent meeting place. The next session is to be held December 17, at the home of Chairman Staub along the Fairfield road.

One program adopted by the organization is "to make Adams county famous for pheasants," with the group planning to devote much of its time during the coming year to stocking pheasants throughout the county.

Charles T. Coffelt, Gettysburg R. 2, was appointed chairman of a membership committee which also includes Comer Altland and Richard C. Cole. The membership committee plans to conduct a drive for members before the January meeting. Those interested in joining the new group who are not contacted by the membership committee are urged to contact any officer or member of the membership committee.

Plans were also formulated for another series of Union Vesper services which will follow the preaching mission. These Vesper Services will begin January 25, 1948, and close March 14, 1948, and they will be conducted in St. John's Lutheran church, Redeemer's Reformed church, St. Paul's Lutheran church and Centenary Methodist church. There will be a guest minister each Sunday night. Announcement of the rotation of churches and the guest ministers will be announced as soon as the schedule has been completed.

County Gives More Than 5 Tons Of Food For Starving

More than five tons of food, donated by the people of Gettysburg and Adams county, were trucked to Harrisburg today to be placed on the Friendship Train there Sunday for shipment to starving people overseas.

Gettysburg Lions club members, who were in charge of the local campaign, declared the response to the appeal here was so generous and so widespread that "we could have filled two box cars in Adams county if we had two weeks to work on it instead of three days."

The donations here included 99 cases of macaroni and spaghetti, 120 cases of evaporated milk, 28 bushels of wheat and two 100-pound bags of sugar. The cash that was donated was converted into food by the Lions committee.

The final total of 10,450 pounds of foodstuff was taken to Harrisburg in trucks provided by R. W. Wentz and sons and by the Adams Electric Cooperative.

HUSBAND HELD IN WIFE'S DEATH

Obiopolle, Pa., Nov. 15 (AP)—James Townsend, 20, today awaited in Fayette county jail at Uniontown the result of an autopsy in the rifle death of his wife, Alice, 19, killed while bathing in a mountain home for which they were caretakers.

Corp. Arthur G. Cohen of the state police said no charge had been filed against the young husband. He said Townsend told him the girl, a bride of six months and an expectant mother, was felled by a bullet from a rifle Townsend was holding but that the tragedy was accidental. The bullet struck the victim in the face.

The officer gave this version of an oral statement by Townsend:

"Alice was taking a bath in a tub in the kitchen when she told me she thought she heard someone outside. I got my rifle and went out and fired a shot. I came back through the kitchen and as I reached the door, I remembered how she didn't want me near her.

"I cocked the rifle. She fell down with her feet still in the tub. I said, 'Alice talk to me,' but she didn't talk, so I walked to get help."

Corp. Cohen quoted Townsend as saying the only way he could get his wife to be affectionate toward him the last few months "was to scare her." He said that was what he was trying to do when he pointed the gun and that he did not know what caused the weapon to discharge.

Sacramento, Nov. 15 (AP)—Gov. Earl Warren, only chief executive of California ever to be elected as the nominee of both the Republican and Democratic parties, was a candidate for the Republican nomination for president today.

Warren entered the race with only two reservations. He will not make an active personal campaign and he will not seek delegates in other states.

Under the circumstances, he told a press conference Thursday, he is willing to have his name presented by the California delegation at the Republican convention as a candidate. Further, he told newsmen, he hopes the California voters will approve the delegation pledged to him.

Nobody in authority, he said, has proposed to him that he take a second place on the ballot and he "would not be interested" in the vice presidential nomination if it were tendered.

FRESHMEN WIN OVER DELAWARE 19-7 IN FINAL

A passing attack in the first period which produced three touchdowns gave the Gettysburg college freshmen a 19-7 victory over the University of Delaware yearlings here Friday afternoon in the closing game of the season for the Little Bullets.

When Hogan smashed through center from the 12-yard line midway in the third quarter for a touchdown for the Blue Hens it marked the first time this season the locals were scored upon.

The Bullets scored six plays after receiving the opening kickoff. Jack Jones returned the kick from the 10 to his 35. Jones and Don Young picked up a first down on the 45. An off-side penalty coupled with smashes by Young and Shearer moved the ball to the visitors' 40. Jones then hurled a pass to Don Emert on the 10, from where he raced over. Tom Faulkner's placement for the point was wide.

Late in the quarter an exchange of punts gave Gettysburg the ball on the visitors' 39. Jones went around left end for a first down on the 15. Jones then lateraled to Young who passed to Speaker over the goal line for another score. Again Faulkner's placement was wide.

Midway in the second period a pass to Emert followed by a 30-yard run produced another Bullet score. Faulkner booted the extra point.

The Bullets bogged down considerably in the second half. The Hens, who blocked three punts during the game, capitalized on one in the third period when Thomas pounced on the ball on the Gettysburg 14. Hogan went through from the 12-yard on the third try to allow the Delaware team to be the first to score on Coach Roy Bloomingdale's lads. Buterbaugh added the point on a placement.

Neither team threatened seriously in the final period.

The Bullets piled up eight first downs to the visitors' four, one of Delaware's resulting from a penalty. Gettysburg completed four of eight passes while the Hens were able to complete but two out of nine.

GIRL GRIDDER IN TEXAS GAME

Stinnett, Tex., Nov. 15. (P)—This warm-hearted panhandle town showered affection and money today on a blue-eyed, attractive, 16-year-old girl who made gridiron history by playing right tackle last night when Stinnett and Groom, Texas, high schools clashed in a football game here.

The fact that Stinnett lost 14-6 hardly mattered in these parts—what mattered was that Frankie Groves, diminutive 103-pounder got in the game for eight plays, bowled over two opposing male linemen and came out unhurt and with lipstick smeared.

Frankie made no touchdowns and nary a tackle—but even the sight of her running into the game brought howls of joy from spectators and both pep squads and after the final gun the whole Groom team besieged her for autographs.

She tugged off her headgear and her brown wavy hair cascaded to her shoulders. "It was great fun and I'll be out there with the team next year. There's nothing like it. I'm a lucky girl."

Today Stinnett business men, led by hardware dealer Frantz (Curley) Ferguson contributed what Ferguson called "a tubful of money" to send Frankie to New York "in a style befitting the bravest little girl ever to breathe the wholesome air of Hutchins county."

Frankie and her coach, Truman L. Johnson, are traveling East to appear next week on a national radio program.

"I have great faith" in Dr. George Bennett of the Hopkins, DiMaggio said yesterday in disclosing that he had played most of the 1947 season in the Yankee outfield with a sore throwing arm that was good for only one peg per game.

VILLANOVA IS WINNER 14-12

(By The Associated Press) The Villanova Wildcats were ready to concede today a foot make a lot of difference after their 14-12 football win over Georgetown.

The good right foot of big John Siano gave the bowl-bound Wildcats their second extra point victory of the season last night before a crowd of 15,000 at Philadelphia's Shrine park.

Selected to play Kentucky December 6 in the Great Lakes bowl, Villanova made 15 first downs and picked up 233 yards to Georgetown's seven first downs and 22 yards rushing and 77 yards passing as compared with the Hoyas' 137 yards.

The Wildcats, a pre-game two-touchdown favorite, engineered an 81-yard drive for its first score in the opening period, watched Georgetown strike for two six-pointers in the second session and then pounded for a third period score after a pass interception. Siano converted both extra points from placement to give the Cats their edge.

County Villian III, Wildcat mascot of the mainliners kidnapped by Georgetown students last week and to whom the Villanova squad dedicated the game, was returned to the home force during halftime.

At California, Pa., California State Teachers' college won its fifth straight game by defeating Fairmont State Teachers' of West Virginia, 39-12, before a crowd of 3,000. Herb Kurtz spearheaded the California attack with four touchdowns. Fairmont back Jennings Shaver, playing his last collegiate game, suffered a broken ankle in the contest.

At Uniontown, Pa., Waynesburg college capitalized on a fourth period St. Vincent fumble to defeat the Latrobe team 20-14 before 2,000.

Sports Roundup

By HUGH FULLERTON, Jr.

New York, Nov. 15 (AP)—Maybe this is just starting another of those rumors the Ivy league has been asked to squelch, but does anyone really believe that no athlete at those respected institutions of learning ever gets financial aid outside his own family? . . . It seems hard to believe, though this writer can state only two certain facts on the subject: (1) That not one of the numerous requests for contributions received in 20 years as Princeton alumnus ever has carried the faintest suggestion of a "slush fund." And (2) that a friend in the coaching fraternity has said repeatedly that all the Ivy colleges, including the one at which he served briefly, are "hypocritical" on the subject of aid to athletes. . . . The oddity of the anti-whispering campaign is that it made the news the same day that Syracuse's Lew Andreas, usually a very conservative guy, was quoted as urging alumni to set up a few scholarships for studious athletes in order to meet competition in Syracuse's own non-Ivy circles.

SPORTSPOURRI

When Connecticut sports writers proposed that today's tussle between Wesleyan and Trinity, both undefeated and untied, should be shifted from Trinity field (cap. 7,500) to Yale bowl (cap. 70,000). Prexy G. Keith Cupston replied: "Progs should stay in their own puddles. They would look funny at the sea shore and might learn to like salt water."

WEEK-END NOTES

Jersey City, once a big-time fight center, is experimenting with Saturday night boxing shows in a huge armory. . . . Snuffy Stinweiss, Yankee second baseman, took a workout with the football Yankees the other day. It's a safe bet that Manager Bucky Harris wasn't in the stands.

JUNIOR HIGH DEFEATED 13-0 BY WAYNESBORO

Waynesboro junior high avenged an early season 12-0 setback by defeating the Gettysburg high gridders here Thursday afternoon 13-0 in the final game of the season for the homesters.

In their first season the Maroons turned in a record of three wins as against two defeats, both setbacks coming at the close of the campaign.

R. Sanders, regular quarterback for the locals, was sorely missed in the lineup. He was kept out of action due to a broken finger received in last week's game at Hanover.

Waynesboro scored in the second quarter when B. Davis broke through right tackle and scampered 50 yards for a tally. A pass for the point was batted down.

Pass Backfires

The second Waynesboro touchdown resulted in the third period when the Maroons elected to try a pass from their 3-yard line. R. Sanders was standing behind his own goal line when he attempted to pass but Waynesboro broke through to bat the ball and it fell into the hands of Stufl beyond the goal line for an easy score. Davis then passed to Loy for the extra point.

Coach Polkenroth's lads had two scoring opportunities, reaching the three-yard mark in the second quarter and marching to the visitors' four-yard stripe in the third period. On each occasion they lacked the punch for a tally.

Durocher Decision Is Promised Soon

Boston, Nov. 15 (AP)—President Branch Rickey of the Brooklyn Dodgers says that Leo Durocher will know within the next three weeks whether he will manage the club next year.

Rickey told a reporter at the Harvard Varsity club dinner last night that he will reach a "definite decision" by the time of the major league meeting early in December.

Asked if he could give any indication of how Durocher stood, Rickey replied "I honestly can't say right now. I don't know one way or the other. There are circumstances."

He declined to discuss Jackie Robinson's salary for next season, but made a flat declaration that he would be with Brooklyn again.

"I want Jackie Robinson with us again next year," Rickey said, "because he's a great ball player and a gentleman."

Battle Of Newark Is Delayed Again

Newark, N. J., Nov. 15 (AP)—The much publicized and oft-postponed "battle of Newark" was delayed again today while both sides conferred over a possible settlement without combat action.

A truce was reached late yesterday by Newark officials and counsel for the salvage firm which purchased the decommissioned battleship New Mexico for scrapping at Port Newark. The agreement put off until at least tomorrow any attempt to move the 30,000-ton former dreadnaught into action against Newark's "Navy" of two 30-foot fireboats.

Mayor Vincent J. Murphy will meet today with Charles Milton of Jersey City and John J. Manning of New York city, counsel for Lipsett, Inc., the salvage firm, and representatives of the Port of New York Authority in Atlantic City between 9 a. m. and 9:30 a. m. (EST)

CANNERS WHIP ELIZABETHTOWN IN FINAL 31-7

Giving one of their better performances of the season, Biglerville high school's football team brought its season to a successful conclusion Friday night by trouncing Elizabethtown 31-7 before approximately 2,500 fans, largest crowd ever to witness a gridiron game at Biglerville.

Coach Gene Haas had his boys "up" for the contest and there was little doubt as to the outcome after the first period when the Canners were out in front 12-0.

The victory was particularly sweet to the upper countians as it avenged a 74-0 reverse suffered at the hands of Elizabethtown last season. The triumph gave the Canners a mark of four wins against as many defeats for the campaign.

Score Early

In the opening period Biglerville scored twice. Marty Heller going over for the first touchdown on a run around right end after the Canners had marched from their own 35-yard line. Pitzer's placement for the point was wide.

Clark Heller scampered 49 yards three plays later to reach the end zone. Pitzer's boot for the point hit one of the uprights.

An intercepted pass at midfield gave the Canners the ball midway in the second quarter and led to the third Canner score. Jim Pitzer featured the drive and eventually scored on a plunge through right tackle from the 2-yard line.

Romps 55 Yards

In the third period Marty Heller got away on a 55-yard run for his second touchdown. A plunge for the point failed.

Marty Heller intercepted an Elizabethtown pass on the visitors' 40 and then Clark Heller whipped a pass to Weaver on the 5 from where he tallied. Pitzer smashed through right tackle for the point.

Elizabethtown's tally came in the early minutes of the final period when a clipping penalty against the Canners put the ball on the Biglerville 40. After the first down was made by the invaders, Kayler, who was later forced out of action due to a pulled muscle, scampered 35 yards to hit pay dirt. Goodling added the point on a dropkick.

Once again the entire Biglerville team put up a nice game. The line, all of whom are seniors with the exception of Naylor, played an aggressive game throughout and almost completely halted the Elizabethtown backs. The Heller brothers, Pitzer, Weaver and Grim were consistent groundgamers. Marty Heller is one of the seniors.

CRUSADERS NIP DELONE 20-19 FRIDAY NIGHT

Delone Catholic high closed its football season Friday night by dropping a 20-19 decision to Harrisburg Catholic on the latter's field before approximately 4,000 fans.

There was plenty of action in the first three minutes of play. On the third play from scrimmage Delone fumbled and Sariano pounced on the ball on the Squires' 34. Four plays later Kostelac went over for the one-yard line after a 20-yard gain on the preceding play. Rados placed-kicked the point.

Delone came right back for a score, Paul Prendergast taking the kickoff on his 11 and scampering 89 yards for a touchdown. Smith's placement for the extra point was blocked.

Squires Take Lead

Cach Bell's lads took the lead a few minutes later when a fumble by Kostelac was recovered on Harrisburg's 23. Five plays later Prendergast took a lateral from Fred Bennett and swept end for the score. Staub raced around right end for the point.

Harrisburg pushed over two touchdowns in the second period to take the lead. Rados plunged through on the first play of the second period to end a 54-yard drive and Rados converted.

A blocked Delone punt on the Squires' 15 gave hte Crusaders the ball and on the next play Till went off tackle for the tally. Rados' kick for the point was wide.

The only score of the second half came early in the third period when Rider ran 39 yards to hit pay dirt but the try for the point failed and the Crusaders held a one-point lead which stood up. Neither team threatened after the third period.

The Squires' record for the season shows six wins; three losses and a tie.

New Haven Plays At Hershey Tonight

(By The Associated Press)

The Pittsburgh Hornets, unbeaten in their last 12 outings, will have to extend their string tonight in order to retain their hold on first place in the Western division of the American Hockey league.

Coach Bob Davidson's buzzing Wesps entertain the Buffalo Bisons, who are tied with the Indianapolis Capitals for runner-up honors in one of the circuit's five encounters. The Bisons and Caps trail the Hornets by only a single point. The Caps meet the Springfield Indians in Springfield while the remaining games find Providence at Cleveland, New Haven at Hershey and St. Louis at Philadelphia. Hershey, defending circuit title holders, pace the eastern half with Providence trailing by two points.

Today's Talk

By GEORGE MATTHEW ADAMS
THAT LITTLE CANDLE

In Shakespeare's "Merchant of Venice" (Act V, Sc. 1) you will come upon that famous couplet:

"How far that little candle throws its beams!
So shines a good deed in a naughty world."

I have thought about that quotation time and again. It holds a lesson for us all. We do not have to gain a big name, to become famous or outstanding, in order to be a useful member of society. It's the common folk of the world, after all, who really run and rule the world. Of course there are times, like the ones we now experience, when dictators and tyrants will rule for a time, but in the end the people will get their cue and turn them out. Read history. How have the selfish conquerors ended their careers?

I am thinking of a woman shut-in in Mississippi, who has been writing to me and sending me cheer and hope for a dozen years and more. But I am only one of scores whom she contacts. She looks out into the fields and notes the birds and feeds them, and rejoices over the Seasons. Her kindness radiates far and wide. The little candle of hope that she keeps burning "throws its beams" afar!

Never can I forget Charlie Miller, who was a traffic officer at 40th Street and Fifth Avenue, in New York city. For a dozen years I knew him well, and loved him. He always had a smile on his face and was forever looking after the safety of women and children especially. He was hit by a car one day and later died from the effects—but his fine memory remains, and that intersection is less safe without him. His candle of kindness, however, still burns there—throwing out its light.

I am sure, to thousands who knew and noted him in life.
Read those "Beatitudes" from the Sermon on the Mount, in the New Testament—little candles of light, shining out in a troubled world. Read them again and again, and note the feeling of peace and contentment that creeps right into your heart and consciousness. How far every little candle of hope, of kindness, and of encouragement throws its beams. And what a multitude of people are influenced and inspired by each!

WORK
Work appears to have no friend,
Yet it gives us all we spend:
Warmth against the winter's cold;
Ease and comforts when we're old;
All the various wanted things,
Motor cars and diamond rings;
Flowers to grace a loved one's bier;
Freedom from both want and fear;
Food and raiment; books to read;
Vine and tree and garden seed;
Pride and honor; childhood's toys;
Schools to teach our girls and boys,
And it puzzles me to know
Why so many hate it so.

Ponder the fact that while it takes over 3000 nuts to hold a car together only one is needed to scatter it all over the road.

Heads Off Damage

When you buy anti-freeze with rust inhibitor or add it to lower priced anti-freeze solutions you are doing more than protect the radiator and motor block against an accumulation of scale. By putting a protective coating of emulsifying oil on the surfaces which it contacts the inhibitor also protects a number of other parts of the cooling system, including the water pump, the motor thermostat, the wire coil inside the lower water hose and the core of the hot water heater. Newest of its jobs is to protect the water distribution tube which is found in many engines. This is the tube which carries water directly from the pump to the valve seat areas of the block.

Charring Has A Meaning

If the brake linings of your car are found to be charred upon close inspection you will know that there is a deficiency in heat conduction. Excessive heat from the drums doesn't get away fast enough, and the linings suffer. An acute case of this would, of course, call for a very thorough check-up, but if the situation is just a mild one I'd settle for this as a warning to use the brakes less vigorously. It would call for better driving, more accurate reading of the road ahead, and more judicious use of speed. Sometimes retarded dissipation of braking heat is due to the type of wheel used, or perhaps to the tires themselves which may overheat and add to the difficulty.

For The Round Table

Will automobile engine fans disappear?

In a recent technical discussion it was conceded that by speeding up the water pump of a typical car the conventional fan could be eliminated. Consensus was that, on the road at least, the fan is excess baggage and robs the engine of a little power.

All this recalls the Wills-St. Claire, one of the great automobiles that should never have been allowed to pass from the picture. Its engine featured a fan that automatically cut out at speeds of 40 miles per hour and over. Engineers then agreed that at road speeds a fan actually cools too much.

Mechanic Joe Speaking:

"Those flat spots which develop on front tires of so many cars are a direct result of unbalance and are no evidence that tires are wearing in a funny manner. Several of my customers have experienced this trouble, and they don't seem to realize that it is due to not having the tires and wheels balanced. One owner balanced the tires after the spots had developed. That was necessary, of course, but a little late. He was just checking extra wear and stopping the wheel shimmy which he need not have had at all."

"Tires must be re-balanced after every puncture, not merely because the mending may change weight distribution but also because the balance weights may have shifted position. Balancing is work for an expert. Too many weights on a wheel usually are a hint that the mechanic who did the job didn't take time to start all over again in an effort to obtain desired results more efficiently."

Steer Clear of This

There's a type of jerky steering which merits special consideration because it isn't too well understood even by the mechanical profession. The driver complains of feeling road inequalities. He gets some shock at the wheel and constantly feels that things are not right with the steering. This sort of thing can stem from five separate causes and is technically known as a condition more "distant" than plain shimmy.

For one thing there may be binding, or its opposite extreme, excessive play, in the steering assembly. Then there may be misalignment of the drag link. Third, there may be a bent spindle. Fourth, one or both of the front wheels may be loose. Finally, the alignment expert checks into possibility of sagged front springs, or inoperative shock absorbers which have the same effect.

This is no time of year to rotate tires solely on a basis of trying to get maximum mileage from them. Right now your best treads ought to be on the rear wheels—for traction.

Wheel bearings always should be treated to hand lubrication, not the pressure type. And they should be cleaned of all old grease which may contain dirt. This is never included in the usual dollar grease job.

Life may begin at 40, but not good visibility. Of the 40-year-old drivers on the road 48 per cent have visual problems. When we reach the 50-year-level eyesight difficulties jump to 71 per cent.

Tragedy Points A Moral

I have just heard of a true and very tragic story which I am passing along immediately because it points out an important lesson for anyone involved in or witnessing an automobile accident. Caught in a bad skid a woman driver held to the wheel as her car went into a ditch, slued around and came to a standstill right-side-up. As she crawled out of the car the driver remarked to members of another party which stopped to offer help that she wasn't even scratched. A few moments later an 80-year-old driver went into an identical skid, crashed into the group and scored two fatalities plus serious injuries to others. One of those killed outright was the woman who escaped the first skid.

This simply points to the fact that where conditions have caused an accident they can easily induce a repeat performance. It's just another

There's EXTRA VALUE in the Tire that OUTWEARS PREWAR TIRES

It's time to measure what you get for what you pay. No matter what you buy, the measure of true worth is in performance . . . how long it will serve you.

In tires there are several yardsticks . . . mileage, protection against bruising and road shocks, resistance to skidding. In all of these, the B.F. Goodrich Silvertown gives you extra value.

Its wider, flatter tread which covers more road area, spreads the wear more evenly. The more tire in contact with the road also means more tread to grip . . . to prevent skidding. Beneath this better tread is a 35% stronger cord body built with sturdier cords and more of them to give better resistance to road shock and bruising.

All this Extra Value adds up to today's big tire buy . . . the postwar B. F. Goodrich Silvertown—the tire that OUTWEARS PREWAR TIRES.

RESCUE COUPLE AFTER CRASH

Evanston, Wyo., Nov. 15 (AP)—A young doctor and his wife, rescued after five days on an icy ledge more than 12,000 feet high, told Friday how they "dreamed of hamburgers" and kept from freezing by conserving their energies.

Woodmen rescued Dr. and Mrs. Robert Dykes of Taft, Calif., from the ledge in the Uinta mountains of northwest Utah Thursday. Dykes had panicked his light plane on the ridge Saturday.

The young pilot and his 28-year-old wife, Marjorie, were "completely exhausted" upon their arrival here last night after riding 14 miles down an icy mountainside and journeying 75 miles more over all but impassable mountain roads to reach this city in the southwest corner of Wyoming.

With unintentional understatement, Dykes said it "was disturbing" when he and his wife heard a report on their plane radio "that we wouldn't be found till spring."

"The roughest part of our stay wasn't physical," he said in an interview with a reporter for the Salt Lake Tribune-Telegram. "It was mental."

The 29-year-old flyer reported the couple had nothing to eat after their crash last Saturday until rescue ships dropped supplies to them Wednesday after their ship was sighted from the air by Lawrence Modula of Evanston.

WARN TOWNS ON TAX MEASURES

Harrisburg, Nov. 15 (AP)—Pennsylvania municipalities were urged today to "go slow" in taking advantage of a new state law broadening the local tax base.

The 400 commonwealth municipalities affected by the new taxing privileges passed by the 1947 legislature were cautioned at the same time to use the law "only for purposes of the greatest necessity."

This advice was given by state tax authorities to the 12th annual meeting of the municipal and local finance officers of Pennsylvania which ended a two-day conference here today.

Walter E. Greenwood, Coatesville attorney and president of the league of cities of the third class of the state, in a speech last night, said that state supreme court Justice George W. Maxey "over-stepped his authority in expressing personal opinions as to the wisdom of the state legislature in passing the municipal tax law while a hearing concerning the act was still in progress."

Greenwood added that Chief Justice Maxey was "talking through his hat in attempting to cite the shortcomings of the measures."

A suit challenging the constitutionality of the law is now before the state supreme court.

T. F. Chrostwaite, of Hanover, president of the State Association of Boroughs, said "it is unfortunate that the test case before the supreme court should be one concerning the

Mary's Catholic church is being prepared for the evening of November 25 at the parochial hall.

Relatives of Virginia Bowling who recently observed her ninth birthday, tendered her a party.

After a brief entertainment at the home of the guest of honor, the girls went to the performance at the local motion picture theatre. Those entertained were: Sylvia R. Dailmyer, Gwendolyn Freed, Norma Jean Hull, Linda J. Miller, Nancy Mear, and Betty A. Snyder.

Mrs. Carroll Rider entertained the Study club of the local National Council of Catholic Women at her home during the week.

A group of local relatives and friends spent a day in York recently to attend a reception tendered Mr. and Mrs. Fred R. Anthony, that city, who were married October 25. Mrs. Anthony is the former Miss Mary R. Finnegan.

The Holy Name society of St. Mary's Catholic church conducted a regular meeting at the parochial hall Monday evening.
